South-Carolina Gazette.

October 31st, 1754. [NUMB. 1063.]

CHARLES-TOWN, October 31.

WE acquainted our Readers, in our last, as we had heard, "that the Spaniards pretended to be ignorant of any Acts of "Piracy committed by Fernando;" but we have since received better Information, viz. that upon Capt. Hood's sending his Boat into St. Augustine, with a Letter to the Governor; he immediately sent a Boat with a Pilot before the Man of War came to an Anchor, kindly offering to furnish Capt. Hood with whatever the Place afforded, treated his Officer with the greatest Respect and Complaisance, and behaved altogether extremely polite and obliging: In Answer to Capt. Hood's Letter, he gave him a particular Detail of the Affair between Fernando and the New York and Virginia Sloops; and telling him, that he had brought in with him, two Negroes, some Cases of Wine, Rum, Sugar, and Coffee, more than he carried out, concludes as follows. 'I have commenced a Prosecution against Fernando and his Crew (which consists of 5 Men and two Boys) and have attached their Effects, 'till such Time as the King my Master's Pleasure be known: This is all I can inform you. Assuring you of my great Desire to serve you and all your Nation; being heartily sorry for this Accident, and that this Country affords no greater Opportunity of shewing Civility to your Officer, who honour'd my Table, with the other two Gentlemen that accompanied him; I am, with sincere Esteem, &c.' Sign'd, Don Fiax mita Garsia De Sosi

Capt. Thomas Atkin, Master of the Brigt. Mary, informs us, that the English have entirely evacuated the Bay of Honduras, and gone to the Musquito Shore; that as he and 4 Sail more were going into the Bay the beginning of last Month, they were chased off the Island of Turneff, by 3 Ships, a Snow, a Brigt. and a Galley, the last of which came up with and took the Sloop Katharine & Peggy, of New-York, John Jones Master; but Atkin and the 3 other Vessels got away: And that while they were chased off Turneff they saw upwards of 50 Sail of all sorts of small Vessels lying under that Island; which was the Fleet that, with another at Port-Mahon who had not yet join'd them, has been so long fitting out by the Spaniards, to take Possession of the Bay, and fortify it so as to prevent any English Vessel going there again for Logwood.

We have now certain Advice, that His Excellency ARTHUR DOBBS, Esq; the new Governor of North-Carolina, is arrived in Virginia, and daily expected at his Government.

By the last Vessels from the West-Indies, we have Advice, that they felt a Hurricane in Jamaica, Hispaniola, Antigua, and some other Islands, in September last, which did considerable Damage, especially to their Provisions and Plantane Walks.

We have just received Advice, that His Excellency JOHN REYNOLDS, Esq; arrived at his Government of Georgia on Tuesday last: That he had almost got ashore at Savannah, in the Port-Mahon's Barge, before any Inhabitant of that Town knew of his Arrival in the River; but that as soon as it was known, Joy discovered itself in every Countenance, and was publicly manifested by a continual firing of Guns, ringing of Bells, Bonfires, and every other Demonstration the People had Time to give.

Yesterday being the Day appointed for electing a new Assembly, GEORGE AUSTIN, JOHN GUERARD, JOHN SAVAGE, BENJAMIN SMITH, and JAMES MICHIE, Esqrs. were duly elected as Members to represent this Parish.

☞ For Want of Room, and because we have not yet been able to procure a compleat List, we must defer publishing the Names of the Gentlemen elected to represent the Country Parishes, 'till our next.
